Big, bright and modern with picturesque bay views from every room, this fourth-floor apartment is just moments away from the beach, transport and brilliant Bay Street's best features.

The home opens into a living and dining room with a sliding door linking the space with the irresistible treat of a super-sized covered terrace with plenty of room to relax and enjoy a morning coffee or catch up with friends over drinks and casual barbeques. The open-plan kitchen displays a full selection of appliances offset by white cabinetry and stone benchtops. The main bedroom is fitted with a built-in robe, and together with a second bedroom shares a tasteful fully tiled bathroom with a shower above the bath.
