Top Floor Maisonette with, Huge Upside!

INSPECT: By Appointment Only - Please contact the Agent to book an inspection time.

Unique chic top floor maisonette with view of St Kilda from every direction as far as the eye can see. A sophisticated sun-drenched residence offering a touch of vintage charm, with original period features throughout adding the right amount of warmth and homeliness.

Occupying the entire top floor this turn of the century gem, offers grand living and entertaining spaces with high ceilings and prized period features. At approximately 280 sqm. this 3 bedroom home is bigger than many freestanding houses in the area and has been within the same family for 3 generations. Each bedroom has its own sunroom / sitting room, which serve as a fantastic spot to spend the days and night capturing the views. The tidy kitchen is serviced by sweeping counters, with plenty of storage and its own full-length pantry. The apartment is serviced by a gas oven, and has multiple gas heaters installed in the original fireplace positions.
